

CPED 6551
Second Language Instruction for Arabic Teachers:
The Essentials

3 Graduate Credit Hours · June 1 – 29, 2012
Course Instructors: Anna Uhl Chamot, Wafa Hassan, and Nada Salem

APPLICATION FORM

PLEASE NOTE: Admission to the course is on a competitive basis. Preference will be given to those applicants with expertise in, and/or aspirations of, teaching Arabic at the K-12 level in the United States. Applications will be reviewed in the order in which they are received.

Date:

Name (please type in English):

Gender: Male Female

Mailing address:

Telephones: Home:

Cell:

Work:

Email address:

Are you a US citizen? Yes No

If you are not, then what is your current immigration status?

Levels of Arabic you teach: K-5 6-8 9-12 University/College

Other (Please explain here =>)

Do you hold a teaching certificate? If yes, please indicate date and place issued, length of validity, grade level(s) for which you are certified, and subject area(s) for which you are certified (e.g., math, ESL, specific foreign language, social studies).

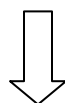

What is your current job?

How long have you been teaching Arabic?

What curriculum are you currently using? What books and materials are you using?

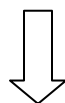

For each of the following questions, please provide answers in English in the boxes on the following pages, using no more than 250 words for each response.

1. Why do you want to join this course, and what do you expect to learn?
2. From your experiences, what are the most important issues in the teaching of Arabic as a second/foreign language?

QUESTIONS

1. Why do you want to join this course, and what do you expect to learn? (250 words max.)

2. From your experiences, what are the most important issues in the teaching of Arabic as a second/foreign language? (250 words max.)

When you have completed this application form, save it on your desktop, then email it to: amahajan@gwu.edu

In addition, you will need to email or fax a copy of your current resume/CV to:

Anup P. Mahajan
Program Director, GWU STARTALK 2012
Email: amahajan@gwu.edu
Fax: (202) 973-1075